Definitions:

Beginner: First time horse and first-time rider. Neither rider nor horse have received more than 3 firsts in trail related events/classes. The buckle series will be the accumulation of points in the following three classes: In hand, Mountain Trail Ridden, and Ranch Trail. Points will continue to be calculated the same way (number of points determined by the number of participants in a class and your placement in the class).

Intermediate: Most competitors will fall into this category. Rider or horse who has received more than 3 firsts in trail related events/classes. Exclusions: Trainers, clinicians, judges (pros). Spouses of professionals can compete in the intermediate classes if qualified. The buckle series will be the accumulation of points in the following three classes: In hand, Mountain Trail Ridden, and Ranch Trail.

Advanced: Rider/horse combination who have had many life and show experiences. They are looking for a challenge or to improve their relationships. This category will include these advanced riders and professionals (trainers, clinicians and judges etc…). The buckle series will be the accumulation of points in the following three classes: In hand, Mountain Trail Ridden, and Ranch Trail.

Harmony: This will be a fourth buckle and will be the rider/horse combination with the highest points in the series for harmony and soft feel.

Green Horse: Any horse that is 4 years old or younger. Or Mustangs if over 4, that have been in captivity for less than 6 months These horses can cross enter in appropriate qualifying classes. Daily awards are available only for these classes.

Green Rider: This includes riders that have never ridden in ANY trail related shows/classes (including but not limited to mountain trail, ETS, competitive trail, ranch trail classes) prior to 2026. This rider can cross enter in the beginner classes. Daily awards are available only for these classes.

Prizes will be awarded daily for all classes. Circuit and series for those that qualify by doing the in hand, mountain trail ridden, and ranch trail for beginner, intermediate or advanced.
